

Roy Shaw is Swiss 2019 Super Mini champion, and was 2018 Trofeo Vega champion. He qualified for the 2018 IAME International Finals at Le Mans, and again in 2019, when he finished the A Final 22nd. Roy won the 2019 Swiss championship with 8 race wins, 5 seconds, and 2 thirds out of 18 races over six race weekends. On September 29th, 2019, his third day in X30 Junior, he beat the 2018 and 2019 Swiss champion to a podium. His first ever OKJ race weekend was the 2020 Winter Cup at Lonato.

Name: Shaw
 Forenames: Roy Alan
 Date of birth: 03.10.2007, 12 years old
 Size: 150cm
 Weight: 38kg
 Residence: Nendaz, Valais, ski resort in the Swiss Alps
 Nationality: Swiss & British
 Languages: Bilingual English/French
 Website: Roy-Shaw.com

Occupation/Training: Schoolboy, last year of Primary School
 Favourite Music: Black M, and a wide range of Rap, Rock, Hip-hop and Pop
 Favourite Food: Pizza without tomato sauce, rare steak and chips
 Sportsmen followed: Leo Slemett (Freerider), Lando Norris, Jack Aitken
 Favourite Track: PF International, Le Mans

Successes:

2013: Buckmore Park Bambino karts
 2015: Buckmore Park Junior Club Rookies' multiple race winner (Sodi karts)
 2016: 5th in Buckmore Park Junior Club (Sodi karts)
 2017: 5th in Swiss Trofeo Vega (Praga competition kart)
 2018: Swiss Trofeo Vega Champion, Swiss championship Pole sitter, 2nd B final Le Mans
 2019: Swiss National Champion in SuperMini, 22nd Le Mans, 13th IAME EuroSeries
 Kart 2020: OTK, Vortex motor

Race numbers: 302
 Team 2019: Ferrara Kart, Team boss Domenico
 Mechanic: Antonio
 Target 2020: Win Swiss Vega, international top 10
 Sports/ Hobbies: Ski racing and Freeride, Ice-skating, Athletics, Gaming

Long-term goal: Be in a position to win Motor Sport's Triple Crown